

Lakeland Bible School Seminar Questions

Serving in the Local Church Mick Lockwood and Nathan Javed

Why work in the local church?

What is the church aiming for, and what am I aiming for within the church?

What can I do?

It's not that easy! Facing some difficulties in working in the church (especially when mine is not perfect!)

One Book! One Story! One Hero! Adam Laughton - a brief overview of the Bible

Aim: to help us know, love and preach Christ from all the Bible, OT and NT

Blurb: "Could you tell somebody what the Bible was all about – in just a couple of minutes ?

Does it matter? How can knowing the "Big Picture" of the Bible help me as a Christian?"

On a scale of 0(rubbish) – 10(perfect), how well would you say you knew the "Bird's Eye View" of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation?

How important do you think the Old Testament is for the Christian today? Can you list some good reasons for your answer?

In 5 minutes, try to list 10-12 of the most important "landmarks" that tell the Bible's story. (These can be either events or periods of time etc....)

Read Luke 24:25-27, 44-48, plus John 5:35-40(especially v.39). What light do these verses shed on the central theme of ALL the Bible?

Relationships Stuart Harding

Following a short talk we will probably look at some of these questions.....

What messages do you receive from TV/Media/friends/family about relationships with the opposite sex?

Of all the voices you hear, who has the most attractive message about relationships? Why?

When you think about being in a good relationship, what are you looking for in the other person?

What are your expectations about yourself in this good relationship?

What do you think about this statement: "There's a huge difference between sexual activity and sexual intimacy."?
